MAURICE BÉJART, THE SOUL OF DANCE

FORMAT: 52'

DIRECTORS: HENRI DE GERLACHE & JEAN DE GARRIGUES

COPRODUCTION: GEDEON PROGRAMMES, ALIZÉ PRODUCTION, ARTE, RTBF, RTS

From the child raised in the suburbs of Marseille to the choreographer performing on the world's greatest stages at the end of his life, Maurice Béjart is definitely one of the most famous creators of the XXth century. He gave dance the opportunity to enter a new era and to reach a large audience.

On the occasion of the 10th anniversary of his death late 2017, this film chronicles the unique destiny of an outstanding choreographer through rare archives, testimonies of his close relatives and contemporary choreographers and various shootings in the cities where he lived and worked.
