

THE FATHER, THE SON AND THE HOLY JIHAD

120'

This story retraces the steps of the Ayachi family on their path to Jihad. An European family of Muslim confession, they live double lives because of their tragic involvement in the fight for the Middle East, a conflict that is now spilling over into the West. Talented director Stéphane Malterre directs this current affairs documentary as cinema, combining a suspenseful narrative, powerful characters and exclusive footage shot in Syria, France and Belgium.
