

TERRANOVA

D'ARTAGNAN AND THE THREE MUSKETEERS: the true story

Everyone knows d'Artagnan, the blazing hero out of Alexandre Dumas' iconic romantic historical drama "The Three Musketeers" and his world-renowned motto "All for one and one for all". But behind this adventurous hero from late 19th century popular literature, hides a real life character: Charles de Batz de Castelmore. As a tribute to Dumas - who died 150 years ago - the film confronts fiction and history by revealing the prolific life of this impetuous Gascon whose adventures inspired the legend of cloak and sword! A life's journey crossing the path of famous Cardinal Mazarin before becoming Louis XIV's right-hand man immersed in the geopolitical plots of seventeenth century Europe.

Producers and Broadcasters:
Gedeon Programmes/ ARTE
Director: Augustin Viatte

Pictures
©Augustin Viatte - Gedeon

WWW.TERRANOA.COM
155 rue de Charonne - 75011 Paris - FRANCE
contact@terranoa.com