Revisit the frontline with David Pratt

Accompany war photographer David Pratt as he revisits the conflict zones where he has taken the most searing images of a forty year career. Turning a personal lens on the wars of the recent past. Revisiting traumas and friendships. All through an extraordinary and exclusive archive of photographs and video.

PICTURES FROM AFGHANISTAN tells the story of David's forty year relationship with that country, taking a present day trip to Kabul and exploring his past.

PICTURES FROM IRAQ, we travel back with David to revisit the complex and ongoing series of conflicts which have beset the country since the end of the 80s. We will travel to Erbil and overland to Mosul, Qayyarah and Kirkuk.

PICTURES FROM THE BALKANS take the form of a road trip back through some of the most traumatic episodes David has experienced in wartime.

PICTURES FROM UKRAINE (2x52') tells the story of the first year of the war in Ukraine, through the lens of a veteran conflict photographer. (Includes long-view historical context)
